

The First Five Minutes

October 2, 2018

Openings

Name the topic being presented:

Nonverbals for the first five minutes

Get Attention	Establish Rapport	Clarify Roles	Have Clear Purpose	Connect Topic to Attendees
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Stand still - Credible voice - Pause 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Greet before the start - Seek synchronicity - Turn to a neighbor 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Content expert - Content location - Responding location - Signal identity changes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Visual agenda - Stated outcomes - Expectation - Benefits 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Turn to partner - How do you feel - What, why, how

Think, Do, Day Feel

In the space below what you want participants to think, do, say, and feel as a result of your opening.

Think	Do
Say	Feel

Planning the choreography your opening

Crafting your Impact Statement

What you will say	Nonverbal moves	Notes

