

Core Equity in Considerations in Curriculum:

The texts, tasks, and truths of every curriculum must allow all voices to...

- Self-aware and affirmed in their identity
- Engage
- Leverage the influence of background knowledge
- Motivates
- Develop capacity
- Grow intentionally

...so that individuals and systems change to significantly improve outcomes for language learners. At a minimum, and if we are to improve access and achievement, it requires every leader to critically analyze the three core “equity in education” strands below.
