

ASPIRE to Teach Video Reflection Template

| |
|---|
| Goal(s) of the lesson. What were you trying to teach? |
| |
| Goal for viewing this video. What do you hope to learn about your teaching? |
| |
| Connection to High Leverage Practice (s) – Choose 1 or more of the High Leverage Practices that connect with your video (there are 19 of them in total; be sure to expand them all) |
| |
| As you watch your video, please use the following questions/prompts to guide your annotation. Use the comments function in Edthena to annotate along your video. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Notice student-student or student-teacher interactions that impacted learning.2. How are these interactions related to the high leverage practices you named above?3. Is there greater context your peer viewer should know about in terms of the video as a whole or particular interactions?4. Name and notice instances that you know were strengths during the lesson.5. Name and notice instances that represented areas of growth.6. Ask questions of your practice; ask your peer reviewers questions to focus them. |
| After viewing, what new insights do you have about your students' learning? About your teaching? |
| |

| |
|--|
| |
| After viewing, what questions have emerged about your teaching? |
| |